

The World I See

Status Praesents

Wake up and you can see
Just the same world that I see
I am a stranger in your eyes
And I feel it's alright

Heya brothers! Whats up? It really sucks!!
I'm used to sleep with her, next to her day by day
Now she is off, she's gone, can't stand the pain
That distort my whole chest everyday gotta say

So wake up! Hey hey wake up!
Wake up that you can see
Just the same world that I see
I am a stranger in your eyes
And I think its alright

So wake up! Hey hey wake up!

Now I am torn and I just wanna leave it!
The fuckin' thoughts that it can't be true
There is no way, no other way to beat it!
Then to be such a strong boy and accept new rulez!

So wake up! Hey hey wake up!
Wake up that you can see
Just the same world that I see
I am a stranger in your eyes
and I think its alright

I am old boy
From the downtown

Hey hey wake up!
Hey hey wake up!

My thoughts are hunting you
Whatever place you go
Whatever you may say
Won't stop them to do so

So wake up! Hey hey wake up!
Wake up that you may see
Just the same world that I see
I am a stranger in your eyes
And I think its alright
