God save me now

Listen up, wait a sec, have you heard a calling - you see that tower bell?

No one will go for me, or hold me tightly - I have to fight myself

Hey, this is a real true story of one's life

Hey, this is a story; this is a story of one's life

Lessons learnt, sun is down, falling from horizon - night is upon us soon

Like my father told me: believe in yourself - so I could be proud of you
