

Alright

Status Quo

Can't believe that I'm standing here alone
How you used me like a stepping stone
I'm getting used to not having you around
Learning to fly now, I'm gaining ground

No way you can bring me down
I'm heading for the good times

Alright, I'll be alright
I'm moving on, no more hate, no more lies
OK, I'll be OK
I'm moving on, I'll live to fight another day
No more, cos now I've got my dreams in sight
No more, from now I'm gonna be alright

It's been a while now, life is such a breeze
You brought me down, brought me to my knees
I was blindfolded, being led astray
I couldn't see, couldn't find my way

No way you can bring me down
I'm heading for the good times

Alright, I'll be alright
I'm moving on, no more hate, no more lies
OK, I'll be OK
I'm moving on, I'll live to fight another day
No more, cos now I've got my dreams in sight
No more, from now I'm gonna be alright

Alright, I'll be alright
I'm moving on, no more hate, no more lies
OK, I'll be OK
Alright, I'll be alright
I'm moving on, no more hate, no more lies
OK, I'll be OK
I'm moving on, I'll live to fight another day
No more, cos now I've got my dreams in sight

No more, from now I'm gonna be
No more, from now I'm gonna be
No more, from now I'm gonna be alright

Alright, alright
OK, OK.....Alright
