Temporary Friend

Status Quo

Where can I go? Who can I find to talk to Boy, do I know it don't look so bright to me Because I'm heading down the road, carrying the load on my shou lders

Passing time away, drinking through the day alone

How could I know 'cos you never show your feelings Why did you go? Why d'ya walk out on me I couldn't see the cards that you were dealing It's you I can't shake, I just gotta break your spell

Because I'm looking for the cover of a temporary friend Oh I don't want to be member of the lonely again Oh I'm a-heading for the gutter and I'm close to the end Because I'm looking for the cover of a temporary friend

You gotta see, you gotta see my meaning How can I survive? I'm out here on my own You gotta give, give me something to believe in Somebody to love, somebody to take me home

Because I'm looking for the cover of a temporary friend Oh I don't want to be member of the lonely again Oh I'm a-heading for the gutter and I'm close to the end Because I'm looking for the cover of a temporary friend

Because I'm looking for the cover of a temporary friend Oh I don't want to be member of the lonely again Oh I'm a-heading for the gutter and I'm close to the end Because I'm looking for the cover of a temporary friend Because I'm looking for the cover of a temporary friend
