

The Winner

Status Quo

You've finally made it, a winner for all of the world to see a long time caught in the winter is worth all the pain Nothing comes easy you know—one can take it away from you
'cos when you're a winner
you know you can do it all over again

Yeah, you can't do no better Yeah, no better than that
Yeah, you can't do no better

There's something about you that tells us you're gonna go all the way we knew it was coming, a winner right from the start no need to feel lonely that's only a natural part of you
'cos when you're a winner
you know you can do it with all of your heart

Yeah, you can't do no better
Yeah, no better than that
