

Right In Front Of You

Stealing Eden

I've been lying here all night
I can't sleep
I'm all twisted up inside
With no relief

Cause it's you that I see
When I close my eyes
And it's you that I keep
From what's deep inside
The moment is gone
I can't make this right
To give you what you need

You know it's true
You know we're through
It was always right in front of you
You know it's true
You know we're through
It was always right in front of you

I've got nothing left to say
I'm sorry
Now there's nothing in the way
To start again
Cause I can't stand to see
That I've made you cry
All alone in this world
And I'm asking why
I don't wanna let go
But I need to try
It's better off this way

You know it's true
You know we're through
It was always right in front of you
You know it's true
You know we're through
It was always right in front of...

You know it's true
You know we're through
It was always right in front of you
You know it's true
You know we're through
It was always right in front of...
It was always right in front of... You
