

No more enslaved!
Here I am your humble servant
It's time for you to give some answers
To the questions of my mind!
Here I am, one of many mortals
Tell me now because I no longer wish to be blind

Forgive me father for my sins
I've lost my faith in you

I am no more
A am no longer your slave
I am no more enslaved

I've been wandering towards your light all my life
With broken wings I struggle hard to take to the sky
Falling down neglected by your grace
I come to realize my life it is a lie

Forgive me father for my sins
I've lost my faith in you

I am no more
A am no longer your slave
I am no more enslaved

Follow me or there's no way to be free
Why should you decide the way we live our life... set us free!

Forgive me father for my sins
I've lost my faith in you
