

I Bow My Head in Shame

Steel Attack

Let me be, leave me alone
You dance of the edge of
The border of wrath you are blind
To blind to see the anger deep inside
It's taking control
I can't help what I become

There's no tears in my eyes
Even though I am crying

All is black out of control
Hidden deep within my soul
The anger in me is not mine
Another me - another time

Now it all begins again
Starting all over at
The point where it died
Staring eyes
I bow my head in shame
For what's done
I am the one to blame

There's no tears in my eyes
Even though I am crying

All is black out of control
Hidden deep within my soul
The anger in me is not mine
Another me - another time
