

Everything seems so different now
Nothing is the same
Different people come and go
And no one is to blame

Trust nobody on your journey into the source
Just beware and load your powers for the course

Use your sword for the bold
And the fire to heal your soul

Searching the right way in your imagination
But listen up and follow the destination
Use your sword for the bold...

Thunder and lightning are calling
Calling your name
Visions and signs are appearing now
Is this only a game

Follow the stars in the sky so high
Learn the book and you will never die
Use you sword for the bold...

DON'T BE ANXIOUS AND WORRIED MY FRIEND
BELIEVE IN THE FAITH BECAUSE THERE IS NO END
GRAB YOUR SWORD AND DON'T BE AFRAID
In the Ilands of Gods they say

Now finally you've reached the island of wonder
No more failure, just listen to the thunder

Use your power and your mighty sword for the bold
And the fire to heal you soul

Paradise beyond all human sense
Never more used to be so tensed
Use your power and your mighty sword for the bold

DON'T BE ANXIOUS...
