

The Awakening (The Tragic Kingdom Part II)

Steel Attack

Arise arise from the dead
You lie asleep
It's time for you to wake up
Prepare the mighty fight
'Till the very end
Forget all the pain and all the sorrow

Got to be brave, got to be strong
To beware of the storm
It's time to wake up and follow the sign
Buried deep inside of your mind
Never more to fail

You try again to saddle up
And keep it hard
Until they beg you to stop
Now they are going down one by one
Beware of Be-Lou, Dwengil's only son

Got to be brave, got to be strong
To beware of the storm
It's time to wake up and follow the sign
Buried deep inside of your mind
Never more to fail

Listen to the wind
And feel the quiet space
The enemy survivors they all went away
They leave without a trace
They leave without a trace

Awake from your sleep
Before it gets too deep

Listen to the wind...

The light, I see the light
Oh, it shines so bright
