

Just By Being You

Steel Magnolia

Let's run away, where nothing stands between me and you,
Let's find a place, somewhere a little closer to the truth,
And call it a home, where there's no right and there's no wrong

And we can be all alone.

Chorus

And I'll take off my halo, if you take off your wings,
You don't have to be invincible, cause I sure ain't no saint,
You'll always be my angel no matter what you do,
Cause you take me to heaven, just by being you.
Tell me a secret, tell me things that no one else should know,
Even in your weakness, baby drop your guard, just let it go,
Until everything's exposed, and you don't have to feel ashamed,

Baby, just say my name.

Chorus

And I'll take off my halo, if you take off your wings,
You don't have to be invincible, cause I sure ain't no saint,
You'll always be my angel no matter what you do,
Cause you take me to heaven, just by being you.
When I see you standing there, you know it all becomes so clear
The way you look, the way you touch, I need the way you lift me up

This will never feel complete until there's nothing in between
And we have broke down every wall.

Baby, baby, baby let's just fall.

Chorus

And I'll take off my halo, and I'll take off my wings,
You don't have to be invincible, cause I sure ain't no saint,
You'll always be my angel no matter what you do,
Cause you take me to heaven, just by being you.
Oh, you take me to heaven, just by being you.

Let's run away,

Let's run away
