

Life ever changing it's hidden reality
But then in a moment we see
Is this just a shadow
Of the spirit planes we've yet to see
Lord come soon for me

If I was once in heaven
Who cast me to this hell?
Am I a fallen angel, a coin in the Bottom of a wishing well
I know that life's a gift
A shadow of the spirit planes
But my flesh is weak and the World would have my spirit break

Life is pure beauty
Through eyes we see
But the Kal force
Has power of flesh, lust and greed
The power to guide us
We can't control
We can be in it, but only through soul

Innocents born from heaven learn life's reality
Through choosing Christ's spirit we're free
If you can find heaven on this earthly plane
Your soul is mature, may fly home again
Your task is complete, your spirit now pure
Leave planet hell from Satan's lure
But if you're still a prisoner to the pleasures of your flesh
Relive this carnal death

Life's everlasting though the body soon must cease
Through soul find eternal peace
Life isn't over though the body's met its fate
Spirit burns, it's never too late

Life did you make it all that it could be or maybe you were never free
Fates warning was never heard
Though tongues of fire spoke his word
You were a fool
