

You And I Undercover

Steel Train

Children, lover
You and I undercover
Do you remember the song
So if you're gonna leave
Cut the cord to those you know will love you back
Then come home

I've been ready
Hands and feet are steady
For you to walk away alone
So if you're gonna leave
Cut the cord to those you know will love you back

All I want is a soldier
Hand and hand with you
We are young, growing older
I can't sleep tonight
I can't sleep tonight

We've ran nonstop
Kissed on mountaintops
Do you remember those days
So if you're gonna leave
Then cut the cord to those you know will love you back

All I want is a soldier
Hand and hand with you
We are young, growing older
I can't sleep tonight

Moving all alone
I won't attach now
Rolling like a wave
To anywhere far
Crashing all alone
I won't attach now
Pick you up, take you down
Cross our hearts and backbone

Moving all alone
I won't attach now
I'm growing like a wave
To anywhere far
Crashing all alone
I won't attach now
Pick you up, take you down
Cross our hearts and backbone

Moving all alone
I won't attach now
I'm going like a wave
To anywhere far
Crashing all alone
I'll Pick you up, take you down
Cross our hearts and backbone

All I want is a soldier
Hand and hand with you
And I can't sleep tonight
