

I live and I will die
I can't live till I die

I've given my heart and my soul to you
Forgive me if I gave you too much at one time
Hell it's been a long time since I've tasted water
I'm torn, I've been torn, I've been torn

I was a fool to believe in you
Forgive me if I burned a little bit of your pride
I don't want to be around when you go down
I'm going on my way before I waste more time

Every time I give out my heart I get skinned alive
Every time I give out my thoughts I get pushed aside
Every time I give out my hand I get suicide.

Every time I give out my love I get jealousy
Every time I give it a thought I just wanna be Living and loving and eating and drinking and singing and fucking and laughing out loud.

You got me all wrong
You wanna put me down, down, down, down

It's a long road feeding the bullshit you're believing in Inside your little balloon that you're pretending in
I don't wanna be swimming in your lemon juice
My soul breathes a fire of pain
I don't know where it's from
But I am a true believer of fate it keeps me on my toes
Every time I give it a thought I just wanna be
Living and loving and eating and drinking and singing
And fucking and laughing and laughing and laughing
Out loud.
