

Shangrila

Steelheart

I close my eyes
And dream of a place I used to go
A perfect world
Only as a child we know
Shaky walls and look out holes a dirty floor
Out own little hideaway

Take me there
Back to Shangrila

I'm standing on the edge of time
Overlooking eternity
Save my life tonight

I know, I know the dream is real

I feel you always there
You hold me with love and care
You give me the strength of life
You show me the Garden of Delight
