

Headhunter

Steelwing

From ancient times we came
Moving silently
Killing for the game
Oh, you will fear me

Are you the hunter
Are you the prey
If you don't strike first it will be your last mistake
There's nowhere you can run to

Gotta move fast
No one can hide
I must find the last
The last one alive
Doesn't matter if they're friend or foe

Love is not for you
Too many times you've lost
When they see me coming
It's time to count the cost

In the shadows
Wherever I go
In the shadow of the blade
Out of the darkness
Obey the call
I am the hunter you're the prey

Beware the nightfall
Sharpen your mind
Prepare for battle
Draw your blade one final time
Your fate is drawing nearer

Raging thunder
Fulfils the game
I am the hunter
Ant tonight my prize I'll claim
Tonight you sleep in hell

They are gone now
Their souls belong to me
They are all gone
I set them free

In the shadows
Wherever I go
In the shadow of the blade
Out of the darkness
Obey the call
I am the hunter you're the prey

I'm on a headhunt!
Headhunt!
