

Another Love Song

Stefanie Heinzmann

If I could write
Three minutes with an honest pen
Forget about the Romeos and Supermen
Everybody's gettin' so engrossed
Forgettin' 'bout things that mean the most
It's strange so strange there's so much we're not sayin'

And if love is not blind
Then why so many people
Still tryna find their way

Sometimes I feel
Like everything around me just means nothing
Sometimes I feel like everyone around me
Is needing something

Don't wanna sing another love song
(OOOOHHH)
Don't wanna sing another love song
(It really means nothing)
When the world around me so wrong
(OOOOHHH)
Don't wanna sing another love song
Another love song
(It really means nothing)
Another love song
(Because we ain't loving)

We can't go on preaching
That we got it
And just act like
The situation will solve itself

I think it's just a little bit crazy
I think it's just a little bit mad
How we're ignorin' all that's goin' on

And if love is not blind
Then why so many people
Still tryna find their way

Take a look around you
Tell me what you see
It will astound you
People killing
People dying
So much crying
So much fighting
So it's time we talk about it
