

Everyone's Lonely

Stefanie Heinzmann

Love's like a carousel such a ruse-less invention but if you never fell that..like a bold revelation he find yourself on your own force you to look in your bones so maybe you'll never know such power prevents now in your how

Uhh
Everyone's lonely
everyone's lonely these days can you save me from the cliché
'cause that I mention is lonely these days

I'm not the skinny girl one fully..the sad song children made the palm her chemical high generation so maybe you're just too young yeah maybe throw it the searching so just any further found I maybe be signal in looking

Hey,
Everyone's lonely
everyone's lonely these days
can you save me from the cliché
'cause that I mention I was lonely these days

Tell me does it cheap at the cracks in your soul every single pouts is got a story to tell heartache is worse so much more when is so sometimes I give away more of myself than I'd like too sometimes I throw away lyrics of all that we run too

Everyone's lonely
everyone's lonely these days
can you save me from the cliché
'cause that I mention is lonely these days did I mention that I should stay since everybody's lonely these days
