

Ones and Zeros

Stellar Kart

Ashes to ashes, we all fall down
Dust to dust, scattered on the ground
Living in the shadows
Where fear can't fight
A hope of redemption
None left behind
A voice for those who can't say a word
To the ears of those who never have heard
It's the sound that echoes through the night

We are the ones
We are the ones and zeros
The beautiful incomplete
We are the ones
We are the future heroes
A colorful symphony
We are the ones

The dawn or the twilight
It's all the same
Clear eyes at midnight
We're all to blame
Chosen for freedom with undue worth
Standing for something that can't be earned
A voice for those who can't say a word
To the ears of those who never have heard
It's the sound that echoes through the night

We are the ones
We are the ones and zeros
The beautiful incomplete
We are the ones
We are the future heroes
A colorful symphony
We are the ones (2x)

We are the ones (4x)
