Angela

I'd like to get away
The world is very large
Photographs in books are real
Enough...

I know it's not just me
I've seen it in your eyes
The reasons that you live seem so...
Alive...

You wanna take it all
And take it all with me
But Angela, don't let your mother see

Angela

Just be the corner stone
The stories that you've told
Remind me that you're
Just a chapter old...

You wanna take it all
And take it all with me
But Angela, don't let your mother see

But this wall, this wall
That you built so high..

It's the reason that
You're leaving when
You can't get by...

It's the things that
You wanted him to know
A long, long time ago

It's the reason that
You're leaving when
She says "no way",

It's the voice in your
Throat when you
Cannot stay

It's the reason that
You're standing
Here today...

Thanks so much for
Coming over...

Angela (You took it all with me...)

Angela (You took it all with me...)

Thanks so much for
Coming over...

Angela (You took it all with me...)
Angela (You took it all with me...)

Thanks so much for
Coming over... (You took it all with me...)

Angela
(You took it all with me...)
