Hey, your children are never gonna be safe from the results of your hypocrisy, oh
No you just got dealt the low blow, in your forbidden craze Oh you need a smack, subtract the facts your knack for always l ooking back
About your doubts of what your criminal loves about.

Hey, stay, you can embrace the sea, change if you feel the wave

Ohhh you got some moves come down to the new forbidden craze
And say whoaaa whoaaa, you know its bad news but you do it anyw ay
And say whoaaa whoaaa, your screaming louder and you don't know what to say Whoaaa whoaaa, one more chance, one more chance to tear apart y our brain.
And say whoaaa whoaaa

Oh please, please, please, please don't you ever say goodbye, c hild

You've got potential, you've got graffiti eyes Hey, stay, bring it on down the line child You see color when there's only gray

Ohhh you got some moves come down to the new forbidden craze
And say whoaaa whoaaa, you know its bad news but you do it anyw
ay
And say whoaaa whoaaa, your screaming louder and you don't know what to say
Whoaaa whoaaa, one more chance, one more chance to tear apart y our brain.
And say whoaaa whoaaa

Ohhh girl come on tell me whats your name, say whoaaa whoaa
And say whoaaa whoaaa, you know its bad news but you do it anyw
ay
