

No Weather

stellastarr*

Oh my lord, oh my girl
She left me sitting in the corner without no words
She's taken all my things, all my polyester
I can't see, I can't see no weather

Barararapapa barararapapapa
Barararapapa barararapapapa

Try to talk her, try to beg
She even gave me a decent reason for why she left
I'm gonna try to get her back, she'll just say what ever
I can't see, I can't see no weather

Barararapapa barararapapapa
Barararapapa barararapapapa

Oh, all I've got is all I need
I wanna make ya, I wanna make ya believe
What ever turns you on, what ever turns you on Cause all I've got is all I need
I wanna make ya, I wanna make ya believe
What ever turns you on, what ever turns you on to me
Oh, to me, to meeee

I can't see, I can't see no weather
I can't see, I can't see no weather
I can't see, I can't see no weather
I can't see, I can't see no weather
I can't see, I can't see no weather
I can't see, I can't see no weather
I can't see, I can't see no weather
I can't see, I can't see no weather
