

God Only Knows

Stephanie McIntosh

How I'll wake in the morning,
How I won't see the space the gaping hole here in my bed
How I'll make my cup of coffee,
How I'll walk to the subway and not miss you hold my hand.

God only knows
I fall in, I freak out
Too deep I cannot climb out
You told me you loved me, I thought that meant you loved me
My stupid heart breaks
When will I ever learn to let go
God only knows

God only knows

How I'll wander the sidewalk
How I'll make it to work on time now that you're gone
When I can't make my car start
When I can't pay the rent up
How will I go on?

Standing in the pouring rain, I'm fighting back the tears again
I thought the love would last forever
Please, I can't seem to:..Breathe.
I fall in, I freak out
Yeah

I fall in, I freak out
Too deep I cannot climb out
You told me you loved me, I thought that meant you loved me
When will I ever learn to let go
God only knows
God only knows
Yeah
