

Do You Want to Come With

Stephen Fretwell

Green eyed monsters on the shore,
Playin hand in hand,
I'd love to give them all they need and leave them dancing hand in hand.

Im going away,
I'm going away,
Where the wind beats heavy on the sand,
Do you want to come with.

See the green eyed monsters on the shore,
Playin holdin hands,
I'd love to give them what they really need,
And leave them all dancin hand in hand.

Im going away,
I'm going away,
where the wind beats heavy on the sand,
Do you want to come with?
Do you want to come with?
