Lost Without You

Stephen Fretwell

I was lost and nothing made any sense, I was tied to a fence and i seen you like a flower trying to grow, But still i dont know what really i should show, oh no.

But im lost without you, Yes im lost without you, Is there a cost attached to you?

Take your time, Please dont think too much, Cos i think too much and it kills me like a needle to my bone, Everybody knows, everybodys knows oh no.

That im lost without you, Yes im lost without you, Is there a cost attached to you?

Yes im lost without you. Yes im lost without you
