

Next Level

Stephen Jerzak

I'm so so stuck
Stuck and out of luck
I need a little oh, oh, oh, oh.
I'm so so sick
Sick of broken love
I need a little oh, oh, oh, oh

But you put me up, Doing the simple stuff
We don't need anyone to to show the way
You know I'm good with it, I think it's a perfect fit
Zero to Sixty and A like your oh, oh oh...
Oh oh oh oh. Oh. Oh. (Oh oh oh)

Come on change it up, it's not enough!
Gonna take it to the next level, To the next level
Turn it up a notch don't let it stop
Gonna take it to the next level, To the next level
You could be standing on the sidelines forever(Forever)...
You could be standing on the sidelines forever.
Oh, we could take it to the next level, To the next level, To t he next
Level...
Ouh ohh, To the next level

It's so, so true, I'm flipplin out with you
We've got a little oh, oh oh
It's so, so right, top of the world tonight
We've got a little oh oh oh
And you put me up doing the simple stuff
We don't need anyone to show the way
You know I'm good with it, I think it's a perfect fit 0 to 60 and I like your
Oh oh oh oh. Oh. Oh. (Oh oh oh)

Come on change it up, it's not enough!
Gonna take it to the next level, To the next level
Turn it up a notch don't let it stop
Gonna take it to the next level, To the next level
You could be standing on the sidelines forever(Forever)...
You could be standing on the sidelines forever.
Oh, we could take it to the next level, To the next level, To t he next
