

My Conclusion

Stephen Marley

Bitch in Memphis, gonna start the revolution
There's no love in this place, so this is my only solution
So get your... my face, gonna start the revolution
There's no love in this place, so this is my conclusion,
Oh god!

I know they say worst is not the answer,
How much can one man take,
If I don't fight for what I believe in,
There'll come take all our own debate,
Already start silver gold and money,
Wanna lie and taking nothing else from me,
Seems like it there's no other solution
But to join the revolution

Chorus:

Bitch in Memphis, gonna start the revolution
There's no love in this place, so this is my only solution
So get your... my face, start the revolution
There's no love in this place, so this is my conclusion,

It takes a revolution to make the right solution
No time to resolution, stop,
If you... mind it, and this... blind it,
May you be remind it stop,
Hey, one day soon, you should need to be
Yes I believe in a better way
Revolution start now don't be lay.
