

She Knows Now

Stephen Marley

And she be sorrow tomorrow
Cos she know now what the next day will bring
She's crying for joy weeping in silence
Cos she know now what the next day will bring
Cos she know now what the next day will bring

Never let a woman tell you that she loves you
When she don't really care that much
Why man why man why man

Never tell woman that you love her
When you don't really care that much for her
She cryin cryin cryin

And she be sorrow tomorrow
Cos she know now what the next day will bring
She's crying for joy weeping inside
Cos she know now what the next day will bring
Cos she know now what the next day will bring

She feeling as if she lost
Now she pay the cost
She's where we...
