As I Come of Age

Stephen Stills

As I come of age I keep fallin' down And I feel just like a schoolboy I was in a senseless rage Runnin' too hard And I tore you all to pieces

Yes but it's all over now I'm a little bit older now The lessons that I'm learnin' now Gonna make it easy Somehow

Now then can I try Starting over Put the pieces back together Even as I cry bitter tears I can see it's all a puzzle A game Always the same

By the time I die with the passing If I've sorted out my changes And if you could take the time I would tell you that it's still a puzzle The same Always a game
