

She'll Be Better

Steppenwolf

You've got to pick, pick out a song
It's an easy way to right a wrong
And if the words, if the words, words, touch your mind
She'll be better, if you'll be kind

If you don't say, if you don't say what's in your heart
There's no better way for fallin' apart
Open the door and let, let the sun shine
Yeah, she'll get better, she'll get better
Just give her some time

She'll get better, if you'll be kind
She'll get better 'cause there's tears, tears, tears
Tear drops in her eyes, yes, there are
'Coz rain, rain drops, it's true
She'll know the reason why, she'll know why

All she needs is a little time
You know she, she wants to be better

You've got to pick, pick out a song
It's an easy way to right a wrong
And if the words, if the words touch her mind
She'll be better, she'll be better if you'll be kind

She'll be better, oh, if you're kind
So much better, give her some time
She'll get better, if you're kind
She'll get better, oh, if you've some time

She'll get better, she'll get better
She'll get better, just give her some time
She'll get better, just give her, give her some time
She'll get better, she'll get better, she'll get better
She'll get better, just give her some time
