

If You Believe

Steps

There's a bridge
I don't know how to cross yet
I need your hand to hold along the way
In your eyes
I see that you have faith in me
I don't wanna disappoint you by the choices I may make

If you believe
Believe in me
Ill turn this tide
This stream into a sea
Cos I believe
Believe in dreams
I know that somewhere there's a key
And time will wait for me

As I grow
I need your thoughts to guide me
I feel your love inside
Like vertigo
In your arms
You see the child within me
Embrace me then release me
When I'm ready to let go

If you believe
Believe in me
Ill turn this tide
This stream into a sea
Cos I believe
Believe in dreams
I know that somewhere there's a key
And time will wait for me

When I'm feeling lost
I just think of you
I just close my eyes
And dream blue

If you believe
Believe in me
Ill turn this tide
This stream into a sea
Cos I believe
Believe in dreams
I know that somewhere there's a key
And time will wait for me

Just believe in me
Believe in me
