

My Best Friend's Girl

Steps

Tonight she'll be waiting in the place,
If she can get away,
For a secret rendezvous,
We've gotta keep our heads down low,
There's places we can't go,
Though we both know the harm that it would do,

If he knew, the thought of us,
It would break his heart until forever,
And without her,
He would fall apart,
I wish I never fell,
For my best friends girl.

I know it's wrong and he's a friend,
Someday it's got to end,
Our love is no excuse,
We've got to hide the way we feel,
And the moments that we steal,
Time could not heal,
The harm that it would do,
If he knew about us,

If he knew, the thought of us,
It would break his heart until forever,
And without her,
He would fall apart,
I wish I never fell,
For my best friends girl.
It's got to end,
This ain't no way to treat a friend,
Every time we try breaking it up,
Well it always starts again,
I can't let her go,
It's wrong and we both know,
It's out of our control,

If he knew, the thought of us,
It would break his heart until forever,
And without her,
He would fall apart,
I wish I never fell,
For my best friends girl.
