

Since You Took Your Love Away

Steps

Holding you so gently
I gave you room to breathe
Now all I feel is empty
Why did you have to leave
What happened to forever
Is nothing built to last
My whole world could shatter
I'm fading fast
Yeah I'm fading fast

I need someone to save me
You don't know 'til you've been in love
I need to find a way back
And I don't know if I'm strong enough
And though I'm longing for yesterday
I guess there's really nothing left to say
'Cos now that's just a memory
since you took your love away
since you took your love away

I'm trying to forgive you
But I'm not proud to say
That after all we've been through
It's hard to find a way
I'm trying not to hate you
For pushing me aside
But when a heart is breaking
Well it's hard to hide
Yes it's hard to hide now

I need someone to save me
You don't know 'til you've been in love
I need to find a way back
And I don't know if I'm strong enough
And though I'm longing for yesterday
'Cos now that's just a memory
Since you took your love away
since you took your love away

You took your love
Oh baby
NO I need you

I need someone to save me
You don't know 'til you've been in love
I need to find a way back
And I don't know if I'm strong enough
And though I'm longing for yesterday
'Cos now that's just a memory
Since you took your love away
since you took your love away
