

Everything

Stereo MC's

The land of milk and honey don't seem to be nowhere
Joe took a gat to Jonny, it's family affair
His sister's in the bathroom
Cryin' tears of despair
Cause when you can't recover, how's it feel to be a mother
And the father don't seem to be nowhere

So check the hardline we all be carrying
Seems like the dollar bill we be marrying
Tag teams assaulting my brain
Well, I'm breaking out, no more sighing
Or carrying on or crying
As they abuse your emotions so that you can be used
It just a ruse, a plot to cook ya goose
Like blackmail, the ultimate untruth

As every day people get pressure close hand
Nerves are frames to the very last stand
And when they snap who knows

Who can say which way the wind blows
I'm not rising no kindda crusade
Just trying a see if sense can persuade
Let there be light uprise visualize
Get a vision and open ya eyes

All I wanna do is get it through to you
We're picking up the pieces and we're making new
All I wanna do is get it through to you
I wanna break through, I wanna break through
I wanna break through, I wanna break through

Well, I've ben digging deep in the archives
Kicking it live, overdrive 'till sunrise
I relaize how to break the fiction
Cause every place really ain't no different
Fast food living every coast, individuals turn to a ghost
Playing host to girls in windows
On ground level it's all the same lingo
Can't change a thing, cann't change a thing though
It's all cut throat down to the last note
It all heave ho down from the word go
No originals everything reproduced, even down to my juice
So come-a, come-a, come-a check me out
I wanna know if we can turn about
Turn around and maybe see what's missin'
If you've nothing to say sait back and listen, get a vision

All I wanna do is get it through to you
We're picking up the pieces and we're making new
All I wanna do is get it through to you
I wanna break through, I wanna break through
I wanna break through, I wanna break through

If you're daragging pick it up, we'll go deeper every cut
Blow the siren when ya stuck, get a vision, liven up
If you're daragging pick it up, we'll go deeper every cut

Blow the siren when ya stuck, get a vision liven up
