

Heartbeat

Stereo Skyline

So baby keep my heart beat b'beat beat beating,
And the soul reason I keep believing,
That we're gonna die like this you know, oh oh oh.

A'beat, beat, b'beat, beat, beating,
A'beat, beat, b'beat, beat, beating,

Hey, hey, beautiful, the sunshine
Shines oh oh so bright, alright.
Laid back I'll spend the night just staring at, you.

For every grain of sand, that you drew me pictures in.
There was one for every time that my, my heart dropped again.

So baby keep my heart beat b'beat beat beating.
And the soul reason I keep believing,
That we're gonna die like this you know, oh oh oh.

Heart, beat, b'beat, beat, beating,

Close your eyes, don't say a word.
You're way too beautiful, you heard.
The way, the way my heart keeps beating,
beating b'beat beat beating.

For every grain of sand, that you drew me pictures in.
There was one for every time that my, my heart dropped again.

So baby keep my heart beat b'beat beat beating.
And the soul reason I keep believing,
That we're gonna die like this you know, oh oh oh.

So baby keep my heart beat b'beat beat beating.
And the soul reason I keep believing,
That we're gonna die like this you know, oh oh oh.

A'beat, beat, b'beat, beat, beating,
A'beat, beat, b'beat, beat, beating,
A'beat, beat, b'beat, beat, beating,
A'beat, beat, b'beat, beat, beating,

So baby keep my heart beat b'beat beat beating.
beating, beating, beating.

So baby keep my heart beat b'beat beat beating.
And the soul reason I keep believing,
That we're gonna die like this you know, oh oh oh.

So baby keep my heart beat b'beat beat beating.
And the soul reason I keep believing,
That we're gonna die like this you know, oh oh oh.
(For every grain of sand, that you drew me pictures in)
(There was one for every time that my)
