

Fractal Dream of a Thing

Stereolab

To some reality appears normal,
To me it seems vested with an important light,
Particular, a light
Sacred, a light
To adress this universe,
With nobility, emotions,
As long as man will exploit man
As long as humanity will
Split between masters and servants,
As long as man will exploit man
Split between masters and servants,
There will be no normality and no peace
