

There is no sense in being interested in a child, a group or in a society

There is no sense if one does not see in them before anything e lse

The life it's capacity to founded upon itself

There is no sense in being interested in an ill person

Or unwell a society if one cannot believe their readiness

And the capacity for proper recovery
