

Old Man

Stereomud

Never before would he even thought it take her life away nothing could give her peace but leaving careful what you say he sees the pain that no one else is seeing he feels the pain that no one else is feeling

Not you've gone past the point you can't take now you've gone past the point you can't stop all the suffering stop all the pain

Old man stop the pain
now your life is stained (2x)

Had it been the other way around there's nothing I would change here for my sake, for her sake hey, it's not a life I'm ending hold on to nothing i'll set you free

now you've gone past the point

(2x)

Go to sleep softly and know this i'm gonna take away the only thing you have left because you can't speak to ask i will send you on your way

It's the way it's gotta be to set her free
take another shot old man
you know what you are ending

old man
