What

Stereomud

Within this hour he'll be higher maybe more than he has ever been won't be his last time he lights the fire to pretend this is something that will never end too tired to wait for tomorrow What takes him away gives him breath to say what not a thing just a lesson for another day He hides in shadows from his silence in the dark he fools himself again won't be his last time he faces nothing that's his comfort in a place that he has always been when he comes down he can't remember What takes him away gives him breath to say what not a thing just a lesson for another day Say when say when say when (2x) Time he wants some time he needs some time What takes him away gives him breath to say what not a thing just a lesson for another day
