

Fly Like an Eagle

Stereophonics

Thinking 'bout quitting
Think it's time now
Think it's all over
Quiet in my mind
Everybody's laughing
Everybody's sure
Nothing seems likely
Nothing's unknown

Did you ever feel like,
Everything's falling?
So fly like an eagle, in-
To the dawning
You know I always feel like
The blinds are drawing
So fly like an eagle, and
Dare to reborn, and

Hey-hey, my, my
Everything's gonna be alright
Hey-hey, my, my
Everything's gonna be just fine

Maybe I'm grieving
Maybe I'm dead
Or maybe I'm leaving
Hearts like lead
Something feels missing
Something ain't right
Remember first kissing
My heart felt white

Did you ever feel like,
Everything's falling?
So fly like an eagle, in-
To the dawning
You know I always feel like
Skies are falling
So fly like an eagle, and
Dare to reborn, and

Hey-hey, my, my
Everything's gonna be alright
Hey-hey, my, my
Everything's gonna be just fine

Oh, nothing lasts forever
Oh, nothing suits me better
Oh, I don't feel so clever
But I'm trying to improve, oh

So hey-hey, my, my
Hey-hey, my, my

So hey-hey, my, my

Everything's gonna be alright
Hey-hey, my, my

Did you ever feel like,
Everything's falling?
To the dawning
