

Half the Lies You Tell Ain't True

Stereophonics

You could lick or chew tongue in style tonight
Champagne drag queen suit pin-stripe outta line
It's time to try how
Blisters on your feet blisters up your spine
If I could choose from two I'd mine to be a smile
But you rely on a lie that's true
And no one believes in the things you do
'Cause half the lies you tell ain't true
I'm gonna find out, I'm gonna find a piece of you

You could pick and lose diesel dreams for crime
I should win and choose colours undersize a naked fake
That's a face that fits for two sex brings out
The spies hanging from your feet hollywood star style

But you rely on a lie that's true
And no one believes in the things you do
'Cause half the lies you tell ain't true
I'm gonna find out, I'm gonna find a piece of you
