It Means Nothing

Stereophonics

Did we lose ourselves again? Did we take in what's been said? Did we take the time to be, All the things we said we'd be? So we bury hopes in sand And my future's in my hands

It means nothing It means nothing

You can find yourself a God But you leave in which one you want Cause they love you all the same They just go by different names Did ya fly your flag today? Are you proud or just ashamed?

It means nothing If I haven't got you If I haven't got you If I haven't got you If I haven't got you

The sun sets in the sky You're the apple of my eye If the bomb goes off again Blows my brain around the train And I hope that I'm with you Cause I wouldn't know what to do

It means nothing If I haven't got you If I haven't got you If I haven't got you If I haven't got you
