

Make Friends with the Morning

Stereophonics

I wanna wake up, make friends with the morning
I wanna make up with the morning, yeah
I wanna wake up, make friends with the morning
I wanna make up with the morning, yeah

You bend my mind
Tell me I'm not right
Say I'm a bad man
But that don't feel right

I wanna wake up
And feel better 'bout me
But you make me feel
You're my enemy

Won't you let me go?
I wanna cleanse my soul
I wanna feel my love
Knocking on my door

Won't you let me go?
Think I paid my dues
I don't know how to win
I only know how to lose, oh

I wanna wake up, make friends with the morning
I wanna make up with the morning, yeah
I wanna wake up, make friends with the morning
I wanna make up with the morning, yeah

Every time
I open my eyes
I feel the whole world
Oh, it's coming down

I get a glimpse
Just for a second
Then I feel alright
Before the rain pours in

I wanna take shelter
From the storm
I wanna take love
All the more

I wanna wake up, make friends with the morning
I wanna make up with the morning, yeah
I wanna wake up, make friends with the morning
I wanna make up with the morning, yeah

Oh everything I know and all I see is in my mind
Yeah, yeah
Oh and everything I know and all I hate is in my mind
Oh yeah

I wanna wake up, make friends with the morning
I wanna make up with the morning, yeah

I wanna wake up, make friends with the morning
I wanna make up with the morning, yeah
Oh

Doo doo doo doo yeah
Doo doo doo doo yeah
Doo doo doo doo yeah
Doo doo doo doo yeah
Doo doo doo doo yeah
Doo doo doo doo yeah
Ah yeah yeah

I wanna wake up, make friends with the morning
I wanna make up with the morning, yeah
I wanna wake up, make friends with the morning
I wanna make up with the morning, yeah

I wanna wake up, make friends with the morning
I wanna make up with the morning, yeah
