

T-shirt Suntan

Stereophonics

he was walking 'round to you one said french afternoon so he called in to a shop for two he brought himself an ice drink a totally tropical nice drink then he saw what he thought was you in a room he tought about goin' over but you were always much older abd your sex dressed breasts impressed too he'd really like to get it together before the twelve of never so he's coming over it's when all the phases come around the clothes you wear the sex and love it's enough for the time outta touch out of luck he always liked them older so that his top lip touched on her shoulder lionized undisguised kill for you like to show you his teeshirt suntan like to show you his minute head stand then a gun spun open from you to me to me to you
