

Taken a Tumble

Stereophonics

I'll up and down elevator, see ya later
It's complicated, if ya make it, confiscate it
You're all around, sight and sound, run like a river
Through my mind all the time, it's never over

Ships sink, loose links but you're a keeper
Days end, trees bend, what lasts forever?
I'm up late, I can't sleep searching for treasure
Ya running around my head like a thousand miles per hour

Yeah I've fallen
Yeah I've taken a tumble
I've fallen head over heels for you
Yeah I've fallen
Yeah I've taken a stumble
Come on and pick me up, it's true

Communicate, telephone, sent me a message
You're all alone in your home, that's what I'm guessing
It takes time for my mind to think it over
About a minute till I'm knocking on your front door

Yeah I've fallen
Yeah I've taken a tumble
I've fallen head over heels for you
Yeah I've fallen
Yeah I've taken a stumble
Come on and pick me up, it's true
It's true

Come on now you can see this could be golden
Just let go all you know I'll be your shoulder
You and me across the sea fly on a jet plane
It's plain to see you and me are going someplace
The bell rings, the door swings, you standing right there
You grab my hand pull me in, slam it behind ya
Sing songs, sing loud hallelujah
What's meant to be is meant to be so go and get her

I've fallen
Yeah I've taken a tumble
I've fallen head over heels for you
Yeah, yeah I've fallen
Yeah I've taken a stumble
Come on and pick me up, it's true
It's true

Yeah, yeah I've fallen
Yeah I've taken a tumble
I've fallen head over heels for you, for you
Yeah I've fallen
I've taken a stumble
Come on, come on and pick me up, it's true
It's true, yeah

Oh yeah
Alright

Oh yeah
