

Take U Home

Stereos

I put it down
You got me watchin you move it on the floor
(I see you want it
Yeah, I see you want it)
Just keep your mouth shut baby
Let your body tell me what I wanna know
(You think you need it
Yeah, you think you need it)
So swing you right around
Get a shot at the bar
We gonna start a conversation bout how pretty ya are
Take the party back and get outta this club
'Cause I gotta get the real thing

You know I wanna take you home tonight
We can get along
We can do it right
You know I wanna take you home tonight
Yeah, 'cause I gotta get the real thing

We're gettin close
Your body lookin' like a dream without the low
(I see you want it
Yeah, I see you want it)
I'm thinkin one more drink, then gotta get out
And I know where we should go
(You think you need it
Yeah, you think you need it)
So swing you right around
Get a shot at the bar
We gonna start a conversation bout how pretty ya are
Take the party back and get outta this club
'Cause I gotta get the real thing

You know I wanna take you home tonight
We can get along
We can do it right
You know I wanna take you home tonight
Yeah, 'cause I gotta get the real thing
You know I wanna take you home tonight
We can get along
We can do it right
You know I wanna take you home tonight
Yeah, 'cause I gotta get the real thing

We're gettin close
Like a deadline, finish line
You know damn well that I'mma finish mine
Straight shooter, straight shots
Around the night
You can chase me
You're vodka, I'm sprite
Tastebuds, tasty
Do it right
Tryna feel fine on a lonely flight
Well we can get high
(Take me home tonight)

One more sip and I'll talk to strangers
Read my lips, it's a body language
Downskies, tu comprende?
Couldn't possibly be pretending
Possibilities are never ending
Made a pass, I'm not offended
All them other boys better stay back
Wanna go with Stereos, ASAP
Wanna go with Stereos, ASAP
That's right
C Carr went home tonight
C Carr went home tonight

You know I wanna take you home tonight
We can get along
We can do it right
You know I wanna take you home tonight
Yeah, 'cause I gotta get the real thing
You know I wanna take you home tonight
We can get along
We can do it right
You know I wanna take you home tonight
Yeah, 'cause I gotta get the real thing
