

Revolution

Steve Angello

I look for you in shadows, I seek you in the night
I chase you in my dreams, you disappear with morning light
I spy on you in Heaven, you spy on me below
Why spy at all when there's nothing real to show?

I spy on you in Heaven, you spy on me below
Why spy at all when there's nothing real to show?

The world is lost in darkness, sitting deep in black
Show me something sacred, put my heart back on track
People on each other like human tattoos
Asking every hour, searching for you

Get a revolution, get a revolution
Get a revolution, yeah
Get a revolution, get a revolution
Get a revolution, oh yeah
