

Forgive Me

Steve Green

As I hold Your broken body
And drink Your bitter cup
Help me realize the depth
Of Your redeeming love
And for all the sin in me
Any sin at all
Forgive me, forgive me

Through the constant struggle
That never seems to cease
As in life, so is the cross
It too was bittersweet
As I receive this sacrament
A holy mystery
I'm amazed You're sharing it with me

You were crushed
You were bruised
You were scorned
You were used
So here am I with nothing left
But praise for You
Praise for You

As I hold Your broken body
And drink Your bitter cup
Help me realize the depth
Of Your redeeming love
And for all the sin in me
Any sin at all
Forgive me, forgive me, forgive me
