

I Am In God's Hands

Steve Green

Safe in the grace of God
My soul finds rest
Strong from a confidence
That He knows best
Following where he leads
My heart is blessed

Evil makes its plans
But my faith still stands
I am in God's hands

Gone are the lonely fears
Of former days
Jesus is always there
To guide my ways
Gladly I offer him
My thankful praise

Evil makes its plans
But my faith still stands
I am in God's hands

Angels will greet me when
I leave life's pains
Sent there to guard me
At that final change
Bearing me up to where
My father reigns.

Evil makes its plans
But my faith still stands
I am in God's hands
