

Morning Star

Steve Green

This day's a desert full of fright (Morning Star, oh, Morning Star)

And I must cross it before the night (oh, bright and Morning Star)

This day can be too much for me (Morning Star, oh, Morning Star)

Be thou my vision so I can see, (oh, bright and Morning Star)

Come rise and shine in your holiness
Oh radiant sun of righteousness
And warm your people both near and far
And shine through me, oh Morning Star
Shine through me, oh Morning Star

Now like a beacon, come and blaze (Morning Star, oh, Morning Star)

Lead on, good shepherd through the maze. (oh bright and Morning Star)

Oh, bright and Morning Star.

Come rise and shine in your holiness
Oh radiant sun of righteousness
And warm your people both near and far
And shine through me, oh Morning Star
Shine through me, oh Morning Star

Our compassion's new ev'ry morning
It fills us up so we can see
So we can see

Come rise and shine in your holiness
Oh radiant sun of righteousness
And warm your people both near and far
And shine through me, oh Morning Star
Shine through me, oh Morning Star
